

EPHS Yr7-11 English Curriculum Overview 2022-23

	Autumn	Spring	Summer
Yr7 Challenge and Change	Seminal Literature: Frankenstein Language Study: Victorian Life and Language What can literature teach us about society?	Language Study: Non-fiction and Rhetoric: Campaigns Then and Now How is language used to influence people?	Literary Heritage & Drama Poetry from Other Times - Can poetry educate as well as entertain? Macbeth – What does Shakespeare teach us about gender roles?
Yr8 Other Worlds	Contemporary Literature: Maggot Moon Language Study: Sci-fi How has dystopian fiction changed throughout the years?	Language Study & Rhetoric: Non-fiction and Media: Journeys, discoveries, fame and celebrity How is language and media used to shape our understanding?	Literature Study & Drama: Poetry from Around the World – Does poetry highlight our differences or similarities? The Tempest – What does Shakespeare teach us heroes and villains?
Yr9 Conflict and Resolution	Seminal Literature: Animal Farm - How do writers use language to persuade others to act? Language study: The Gothic – Can I use elements of the genre to create suspense?	Language Study: Rhetoric in a range of text types – How can writers be a voice for societal change?	Literature Study: Poetry - What can poetry teach us about peoples' state of mind? Romeo and Juliet : What does Shakespeare teach us about the futility of conflict?
Yr10 Eduqas language and literature	A Christmas Carol Studying fiction and creative writing	An Inspector Calls Studying non-fiction and transactional writing	Romeo and Juliet Language analysis skills
Yr11 Eduqas language and literature	Anthology poetry Speech writing Presentation – recorded	Bespoke Revision	Summer half term 1: guided revision and practice for exam

EPHS Yr7-11 English Curriculum Overview 2022-23